

Storytelling Report

On Tuesday 29th I went to school. I did not expect anything unusual to happen, but as I went to go to class I saw the most unusual thing. There was a lady in there. Then I remembered that JB was coming today. I got comfortable and then JB surprised me with the most weird clothes and materials.

I saw Daffy the puppet. But it was a duck. I liked her. She was funny. After that JB told us five fantastic stories.

I loved it! And now I am writing this to you.
